Attractive Shikoku Island By Jinyoung Park

Hello everyone! My name is Jinyoung Park from Korea. I have been here for almost 2 years and am scheduled to go back to Korea in June.

I think I have enjoyed my life in Japan for 2 years, especially travel in Shikoku. As soon as I came here, I bought a book for travel in Shikoku because I love travel. Then I started to hang around in Shikoku every weekend. I would like to introduce to you my favorite places of Shikoku.

The first one is in Kagawa-ken, which is called noodle-ken because there are so many noodle restaurants. Whenever I go to Kagawa-ken I drop by 3 or 4 places of noodle restaurants because each restaurant has a special taste of its own. It has been my pleasure to taste the variety of noodles. After eating to my fill, I walk around Ritsurin Park, a Japanese style park, or go up the 760 stairs of Kotohira Shrine while seeing the stores along the stairs. That is also another pleasure.

In winter, Kagawa is famous for oysters also. I couldn't forget the taste of grilled oyster that I have had for the first time in my life here, because Koreans normally have raw oysters not grilled. And here there are many kinds of oyster dishes: fried oysters, rice boiled with oysters, oyster soup, etc. It is memorable that Kagawa-ken is a sweet and delicious place to me.

Another favorite place is Shimanami-kaido of Ehime-ken, a huge and beautiful bridge connected to Honshu traversing the sea. On the bridge, you can see the beautiful sea and islands and can feel fresh wind from the sea. It's my way to chase stress away. Among the 9 islands under the Shimanami-kaido, I love Ooshima Island. I enjoy the open air type hot spring in front of the sea and have delicious raw fish dishes. There is also a rose park, where you can see an amazing variety of kinds of roses in May. Shimanami-kaido is beautiful and a scenic place to me.

Other than that, in Kochi-ken I could hear the name of Sakamoto Ryoma-san many times. He is famous as a large reformer remembered in Japan history. Kochi-ken is the place Sakamoto Ryoma-san was born. Kochi-ken is a historic spot I feel.

Tokushima-ken is also an interesting place that is famous for the Awaodori-dance. I was so excited when I learned how to dance in Awaodori hall. In my memories, Tokushima-ken is a wonderful festival place that has their own special style dance, Awaodori.

Shikoku Island consists of 4 prefectures, Kagawa-ken, Ehime-ken, Kochi-ken and Tokushima-ken, each has its own character. I am really happy that I have been fascinated by Shikoku for 2 years. After I go back to Korea, it is certain that I want to come here again.

I love this Small but Sweet and Scenic Shikoku Island.

Jinyoung Park is from Korea. She's been in Niihama for two years. She works for Sumitomo Chemical Company. Her hobby is traveling and she likes eating and drinking.

Renovated Restaurant in Mintopia Besshi

The renovated restaurant in Mintopia Besshi, opened on March 1. Its new name is "Mori-no-Kaze", the wind from the forest. It was closed 2 months ago for renovations and restarted service with new menus.

It is now managed directly by the privately financed initiative Mintopia Besshi which aims to provide better service to customers.

It has new tables on the terrace and the total floor space is 493 square meters.

The entrance is made of thinned wood from Besshi-yama mountain and tries to recreate the atmosphere of the forest. The cost of the renovation was 3.6 million yen.

New menus reflect the changing seasons with dishes made only from local products and handmade noodles.

Mintopia Besshi hopes to have a turnover of more than 100 million yen a year.

The Chief Manager Funakoshi had this to say, "We want to attract more customers with our new cuisine and then to have more visitors to the sightseeing spots and the souvenir shops".
